

Sermon Weekly Devotions

Jesus, the God of the Living and Resurrection Hope

Day 1: God Is the God of the Living

God is not distant or inactive, but is always present and at work, offering life that extends beyond death; He is the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and in Christ, He promises resurrection and eternal life to all who trust in Him. [46:37]

Exodus 3:6 (ESV)

And he said, "I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob." And Moses hid his face, for he was afraid to look at God.

Reflection: In what area of your life do you need to trust that God is actively present and working for your good, even when you cannot see it?

Day 2: The Resurrection Changes Everything

The resurrection of Jesus is the foundation of our hope, assuring us that death is not the end and that the life to come far surpasses anything we experience now. [47:51]

1 Corinthians 15:19-22 (ESV)

If in Christ we have hope in this life only, we are of all people most to be pitied. But in fact Christ has been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep. For as by a man came death, by a man has come also the resurrection of the dead. For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ shall all be made alive.

Reflection: How does the promise of resurrection shape the way you face challenges, grief, or loss today?

Day 3: This Life Is Just the Beginning

Our time on earth is only a brief moment compared to the eternity God has prepared for us, and even the best experiences here cannot compare to the fullness of life that awaits in Christ.

[52:28]

Romans 8:18 (ESV)

For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory that is to be revealed to us.

Reflection: What is one earthly pursuit or worry you can hold more loosely today, knowing that your true life is found in Christ and the eternity He promises?

Day 4: Share the Good News with a Broken World

We are called to share the hope and joy of the resurrection with those around us, especially in a world that often believes this life is all there is. [53:59]

Matthew 28:19-20 (ESV)

Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age.

Reflection: Who is one person in your life who needs to hear the hope of Jesus today, and how can you reach out to them with love and encouragement?

Day 5: Bring Your Brokenness to the God of Grace

God invites us to bring our sins, grief, and pain to Him, promising forgiveness, healing, and a new beginning through Jesus, the God of the living. [54:23]

Psalms 103:8-12 (ESV)

The Lord is merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love. He will not always chide, nor will he keep his anger forever. He does not deal with us according to our sins, nor repay us according to our iniquities. For as high as the heavens are above the earth, so great is his steadfast love toward those who fear him; as far as the east is from the west, so far does he remove our transgressions from us.

Reflection: What burden, regret, or sin do you need to bring to Jesus today, trusting that He offers you forgiveness and a fresh start?